Judicial Ticket.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court—
DAVID TAYLOR, of Fond du Lac.
For County Judge—
AMOS P. PRICHARD, of Janesville.

This country is waiting with much interest to see how John Bull will manage two wars at one time.

The assembly bill to establish a state board of agriculture has been killed—as dead as a last year's log.

Although Higgins may be a bad egg, the democrats want to be let down easy by saying that he is too small for a national issue.

Before the senate adjourns it is hoped that President Cleveland will offer some fat office to an independent, to see whether he will bite or not.

Turkey is truly the "sick man of the east," and if our Cox, whose smile never had a "sunset," can make him laugh, he will not have studied joking in vain.

The Milwaukee Sentinel informs us that John Winans will be the democratic candidate for mayor. The republicans can beat him as easily as any other democrat.

So it seems that the Russian bear can't step on the British lion's tail without a good fight following. John Bull likes to eat, but he never refuses a good chance to give some one a whipping.

Mr. Beecher can outdo a genuine southerner in his desire to compliment the south. He says he wants the next president to come from the south and to be a man who was engaged in the rebellion.

War, as unfortunate as it may be in a moral sense, generally brings good times. The order of Russia for 100,000,000 metallic cartridges from a Connecticut factory and one from England for 50,000,000 should mean to our farmers to sow 150,000,000 acres more in wheat.

Governor Hoadly, of Ohio, very wisely says that he can't afford to be a candidate for re-election, as he had to pay $10,000 for his election two years ago, in addition to giving up a $30,000 law practice for a $4,000 salary. When a Ohio man can't afford to hold office there is hope in the air.

As an explanation why Colonel Vilas will serve only a year in the post-office department, it is said that the president wants to serve as many democrats as possible during the next four years—giving each a little slice of office. This is very considerate on the part of Mr. Cleveland.

A friend of the Gazette asks if Mlle Van Zandt, who is creating such an excitement among the actors and musicians of Paris, is the same Van Zandt who formerly gave exhibitions in this state. She is not, and has never been west. The hostility of the Parisians to Van Zandt and the threatened mob by the Americans, look very much like an advertising dodge.

The Milwaukee Sentinel's Shawano correspondent makes a careful estimate of the winter's lumber out on the Wolf river, which he places at 94,200,000 feet, as against 165,000,000 in 1883, and 137,000,000 in 1884. Owing to the very favorable weather the cut, he says, is from 10 to 20 per cent. more than the lumbermen expected, who, in view of the over-stock on hand and general dullness, contemplated an even larger reduction from last year's total.

In the time of war there is nothing like canned beef, after we except powder. The British government understands this, and has ordered ten million pounds of canned beef for the British army from two American firms within a few days, and it is confidently expected that a much larger amount will be called for within a short time. The process of turning the Texas steer into canned beef has been given the biggest kind of a boom in consequence, and Chicago beef packers are happy.

Cleanliness is the next thing to Godliness, and appreciating this fact the clergymen of Philadelphia have been requested to do something which the preachers of this and other cities might als well regard as a duty: that is to devote a sermon or two to urging their congregations to clean up their cellars and to look after their sanitary conditions generally. Whether the cholera comes or not, it is timely to talk about clean bodies and clean yards. There will be no troubles for the ministers to find texts in the scriptures which hit the nail on the head every time.

The State Journal says that the state of Minnesota is very anxious to gobble the thriving the Wisconsin city of Superior, with its fine harbor, and with this end in view has appointed a commission to treat with Wisconsin on the subject of a readjustment of our northwestern boundry. "The assembly adopted a joint resolution, this morning, declining to enter into any inter-state boundary convention, as proposed, being well satisfied to let the affair rest where long usage has allowed it to. Minnesota will now be obliged to dismiss her commissioners."

It has been said by competent judges that since Mr. Arthur left the New York custom house, the best managed office on this continent, if not in the world, is the New York post-office as managed by Mr. Pearson. The volume of business transacted annually is enormous. Last year the total delivery amounted to 267,000,000 pieces. The quantity of matter passing through the office in transit from other offices in this country and from foreign countries had increased from 963,000,000 pieces, each of which had to be handled separately, in 1850, to nearly 106,000,000 pieces in 1884. In 1880, 300,000,000 pieces of mail matter of local origin were forwarded to cities outside of New York; last year the number was 419,000,000. The total number of pieces of mail matter of all kinds handled last year was 830,000,000, a daily average of 2,400,000. The aggregate business of the money-order department of the office last year was nearly $73,000,000—more than double that of ten years ago.

THE WAR CLOUD IN THE EAST.

The little trouble which is likely to occur between England and Russia, grew out of the following circumstance: "On the 16th inst., England sent to St. Petersburg a proposal that the troops of both Russia and Great Britian should retire from the disputed territory on the Afghan border, until a mutual agreement upon the line could be arrived at. Russia replied, on the 25th, that she could not do it, for, having already occupied the territory in question, she thought it would be humiliating in her to retire. England has now telegraphed her ultimatum to Russia, and desires that the answer reach London on Monday next. The terms of this ultimatum are not given, but they are doubtless, in effect, that Russia must withdraw or war will be declared."

What this restlessness will result in can not be told at present, but the stronger probabilities are that the matter will be settled by some diplomatic means rather than by the force of powder. England is not in an excellent condition to fight, but she appears to be plucky, and may not refuse to knock the chip off the back of the Russian bear.

The total strength of the military of Great Britian is about as follows: The British force in India at the first of the year, was 61,591 men. This gave at the close of 1884 an effective strength in Great Britain and the colonies of 181,227 men. Of this number 62,762 were in England, 24,000 in Ireland, 3,266 in Scotland, 7,156 in Egypt, and 24,529 in the colonies outside of India. The reserves, first and second class, number 47,250 men; the militia, 141,982; the volunteers, 249,412. The militia and reserves could take the place of the 100,000 regulars in Great Britain, and the latter could take the field. The British navy consists of 168 steam and 68 sailing vessels, carrying 34,042 officers and seamen, and 12,400 marines.

Russia can boast of a formidable military power. The strength of her regular army on the peace footing is 680,000, with 67,000 horses. On war footing, it is 1,970,000 men, with 224,000 horses. With the territorial militia, the full strength of the military forces of the empire in time of war is about 3,000,000 men. From these facts it will be seen that Russia can strut before England with a good deal of pride and independence.

THE PROSPERITY OF SWINDLERS.

There are thousands of people who never had their eye-teeth cut until they have been swiddled a few times, and this fact furnishes a fertile field for advertising quacks and other swindlers. When Mrs. Howe, of Boston, advertised that she would open a savings bank for women and pay all the way from 20 to 80 per cent. per annum for deposits, hundreds of gullible women went to the bank with their earnings, and, of course, lost all they put in bank.

The lack of a little brains and average common sense has cost a great many honest people a good deal of money and unrest. This is a bad disease and it works with wonderful fatality when it gets started. There are thousands of farmers in every state in the northwest whose anger rises like a tornado at the simple mention of a lightning rod agent; and equally as many have had as bitter experience with patent right men. A few days ago two men were engaged in canvassing Michigan in the interest of a liquid tended to take the place of soft soap. It seemed to be wonderfully effective, judging from the sample which they carried about with them, and being easily made and not expensive, the recipe was sold to many hundreds of families for $5 each. The canvass was made with rapidity and before one neighborhood had time to test the article, the scoundrels were miles away swindling another neighborhood. In this way the sharpers made from $100 to $200 a day for two or three months, but when the liquid was found to be a fraud of the worst kind and the telegraph spread the news of the sharp game the scamps were playing, they were compelled to leave Michigan and carry their frauds into other states.

One J. L. Connolly, a young man of Brooklyn, New York, used the mails to scatter tens of thousands of circulars giving testimonials regarding a catarrh remedy. In the first place the nostrum was a fraud; and in the second place he made a bogus certificate of the superintendent of the money order department of Brooklyn post-office lauding the virtues of the remedy. For over three months, Connolly received from $300 to $500 daily through the mails for this catarrh medicine, and this fact attracted the attention of the post-office department and a subsequent investigation showed that he was the most successful swindler that ever infested New York.

But there does not seem to be much encouragement for the government and detective association to bring such scamps to justice. People like to be humbugged, and they will buy of a quack when they will refuse to deal with a legitimate physician and a well-known business man. For this reason swindlers find prosperity in their business.

JUSTICE VINDICATED.

William Neal Suffers the Extreme Penalty—He Protests His Innocence in a Letter Signed with a Clot of His Own Blood.

GRAYSON, Ky., March 28.—Marshal Punch, of Mount Sterling, who inquired into the Neal case after the respite a month ago, returned Friday and declared himself satisfied of the prisoner's guilt. Sheriff Holcomb, of Carter county, and a posse of seven men Thursday brought Neal from Mount Sterling here, where an immense crowd congregrated to see the prisoner hanged. The people gathered at all the stations on the railroad to see Neal, who to all strongly declared his innocence. The posse, armed with shot-guns, marched Neal to the jail. When the jailer askad if he wanted a minister Neal said he did not think one was of any use. He said he wanted eggs and bacon for supper and the same for breakfast and dinner Friday. He requested to be left in quiet, but until 10:30 o'clock Thursday night streams of visitors, including newspaper men, poured in upon him. He was questioned closely, but maintained his innocence, and asserted he had had no fair trial, and that certain rich persons had done him wrong by procuring evidence to hang him. He could forgive them, but his innocence would one day be proven. Retiring about 1 o'clock, Neal slept over three hours. After breakfast he received visitors, including two Methodist preachers, Revs. Wiseman and McKinster, who counseled, read, prayed, and sang with him, the prisoner joining in the exercises. The death warrant was then read, and Neal, clothed for his execution, dined and was driven from the jail half a mile to the scaffold, which had been erected in a field, and was visible from the surrounding hills. At 2 o'clock the procession left the jail. The prisoner, in a short speech, protested his innocence. The drop fell on time, and the last of the Ashland murderers died three and a quarter years after the crime was committed.

The crime for which Neal died Friday was most atrocious. The residence of Mr. Gibbons, at Ashland, was discovered to be ablaze early Christmas morning, in 1881. After the flames had been extinguished, the evidences of a diabolic deed were brought to light. A vigilance committee was promptly organized, and several detectives were set to work. Not for several months was any satisfactory clew obtained. At last some evidence was secured against George Ellis, and he confessed that he and Ellis Craft and William Neal had ravished and murdered Fannie Gibbons and Emma Carrico, and had beaten Robert Gibbons to death. Then, in order to conceal all evidence of their crime, they set the house on fire. The details of the story were sickening. It appears that even after the girls were dead the miscreants outraged their remains. All the culprits were then placed under arrest. Ellis afterward recanted, but in spite of this he was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. A mob broke open the jail at Catlettsburg, where he was confined, and hanged him. While the rope was around his neck he again made a full confession.

Neal and Craft were sentenced to death, but succeeded in getting several new trials. Public sentiment was terribly aroused, and while the prisoners were being taken from Catlettsburg to Lexington a mob boarded a train of freight-cars running along the river bank and kept up a continual fire from small arms upon the troops on the steamboat all the way to Ashland. At Ashland the vigilantes got possession of a ferryboat and swung out in the stream to intercept the steamer. They opened fire on the vessel, which was returned by the troops, and a number of the passengers in the ferry boat were killed and wounded, and some of the bullets which missed the ferryboat killed and wounded about twenty people on the banks of the river. Craft was sentenced on a change of venue at Grayson to be hanged, and being refused a new trial was executed in August, 1883. Neal was tried later on, and was again sentenced to death, but was reprieved from time to time until Friday.

In a letter written in his own blood and sealed with a clot of gore he denied emphatically that he had anything to do with the Ashland horror.

MYERS MAKES A THREAT.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 28.—Nothing is talked of here but the disgraceful row in the legislature Thursday. When the house convened Friday morning Myers was not present, but his friends railroaded a motion to adjourn, and the speaker announced the body adjourned till Tuesday, although two-thirds of the members were on their feet objecting. Allen O. Myers said Friday night that the house would not dare to expel him; that he knows too much about its members, and if they made such a move, he would send a good many of them to the penitentiary. He is none the worse for his morphine dose. His enemies allege that he took the poison merely for effect, and had no idea of suicide. The outcome will absorb public attention here for the next few days.

The Strike in the Collieries.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 28.—Reports from river and railroad indicate but little change in the status of the coal miners' strike. At noon Friday word was received at the general office of the miners that the Birmingham Coal company, better known as Keeling's works, and employing about 330 men, had started to run coal to the river. The 3-cent rate had been conceded some time ago, but only local trade was served, and this move is regarded by the miners as the first victory for the strikers in the lower pools. Secretary Flannery, in estimating the cost of the river strike, says the fourth pool men alone have lost $57,600 in wages during the past three weeks. This amount he holds can be recovered in a little over two months by steady work at the price demanded. In the meantime Pittsburg operators are buying Kanawha coal, mined at rates equal to 3 cents, and selling it at prices which would warrant the payment of 6 cents per bushel for mining. In the Woods Run district both operators and miners are working vigorously, and exercising their persuasive faculties to the fullest extent. A meeting of strikers will be held at Catsburg, and will be addressed by President Costello and others.

Fell Fifty-Five Feet.

TOLEDO, March 28.—Michael Joufman, a German carpenter at work on the roof of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial building, was struck by a derrick, loosened by the breaking of one of the guys, and was thrown fifty-five feet to the street below. Death was instantaneous, resulting from internal injuries. Henry Miller was knocked to the floor below and sustained serious injuries.

Also, to amend chapter 78 of the laws of 1883, entitled an act to amend the fourth subdivision of section 23 of chapter 1, and chapters 2 and 9, of chapter 221 of the laws of 1882, entitled "An act to reduce the act incorporating the city of Janesville and the several acts amendatory thereof, into one act, and to amend the same by striking out sections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, of said chapter, and to repeal chapter 103 of the laws of 1885."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of chapter 2 of chapter 221 of the laws of 1882 is hereby amended by inserting after the word "attorney," in the fifth line of said section the word "two," and by adding to the word "commissioner," in the same line, the letter "s," so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 2. The municipal government of said city shall consist of a common council, composed of a mayor and two aldermen from each ward. The other officers of the corporation shall be a clerk, treasurer and city attorney, two school commissioners at large, two justices of the peace, sealer of weights and measures, and one constable, supervisor and school commissioner for each ward, and a street commissioner and city marshal.

SECTION 2. Section 3, of chapter 2, of chapter 221, of the laws of 1882, is hereby amended by striking out all after the word "at" in the first line of said section, and before the word "at" in the ninth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The election which shall be held on the first Tuesday of April, 1885, there shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city a mayor, clerk, sealer of weights and measures, a school commissioner at large, and a justice of the peace who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years, and a treasurer and school commissioner at large, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of one year; and there shall also be elected on the first Tuesday in April, in the year 1886, a treasurer, city attorney, a justice of the peace, and a school commissioner at large, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years, and the aforesaid city officers shall thereafter be elected for the term of two years at the annual city election which next precedes the expiration of the respective terms of said offices. So that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 3. At the election which shall be held on the first Tuesday of April, 1885, there shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city, a mayor, clerk, sealer of weights and measures, a school commissioner at large and a justice of the peace who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years, and a treasurer and school commissioner at large who shall hold their respective offices for one year; and there shall also be elected on the first Tuesday in April in the year 1886 a treasurer, city attorney, a justice of the peace and a school commissioner at large who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years at the annual city election which next precedes the expiration of the respective terms of said officers. At such annual election there shall also be elected by the qualified electors of each ward an alderman, who shall hold his office for two years; a constable and supervisor, who shall hold their respective offices for one year; and every two years there shall be elected by the qualified electors of each ward a school commissioner who shall hold his office for two years. All officers, of said city heretofore elected under its charter shall hold their respective offices until the expiration of the term for which they were elected, and nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorize the election of any mayor, clerk, treasurer, city attorney, school commissioner at large, justice of the peace, sealer of weights and measures, alderman, school commissioner, supervisor, constable or other officer whose term of office shall commence before the expiration of the terms of office of any such officers heretofore elected under the charter of said city. All elective officers specified in this act shall hold their respective offices for the term provided in this act and until their successors are elected and qualified. All other officers named in this act, and which are not by this act declared elective shall be appointed by the common council by ballot.

SECTION 3. Section 2 of chapter 2, of chapter 221, of the laws of 1882, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "elected" where the same occurs for the first time in said section the words "together with the school commissioners at large" so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 2 The said school commissioners so elected together with the school commissioners at large, shall constitute a board to be styled, "The board of education of the city of Janesville." Said board shall appoint and hold stated monthly meetings, and a majority thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At the first meeting of said board in each year, the members thereof shall elect one of their number president and whenever he shall be absent, a president pro tem. may be appointed; they shall also appoint a clerk, and fix his compensation which shall not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars per annum; and he shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. The common council may appoint a street commissioner and a city marshall, and may remove and displace both, or either of them at its pleasure, and shall fix the rate of compensation to be paid to each, and they shall not receive any greater compensation than that so fixed.

SECTION 5. Chapter 103 of the laws of 1885, is hereby repealed.

YES, SIR.

One can't expect to succeed in business or in pleasure either, for that matter, unless one feels all right in health and spirits. This is the first consideration. Now, its a small matter when this remedy, ZOPE-SA, is recommended so highly, even guaranteed to renew one's energy and spirits by invigorating the Liver and aiding Digestion, by clearing the brain, opening the pores of the skin, regulating the bowels and system, to go to the drug store of PRENTICE & EVENSON opposite postoffice, and get a single bottle of Zopesa as a trial. It is a duty every one owes to himself. Try a 25 cent sample bottle. If you suffer from Indigestion, Heart burn or Sick Headache, don't fail to try it. ONE DOSE will relieve you immediately, and one bottle will cure any ordinary case.

"Hub" Cough Cure, the favorite Prescription of a Boston physician, dispensed for years by a Boston druggist. ONE DOSE will cure any ordinary cough. It acts almost magically. Ask Prentice & Evenson for a 50 cent bottle of "Hub" Cough Cure. It acts so quickly as to astonish you.

ENGLAND CALLS TIME.

SHE GIVES RUSSIA UNTIL MONDAY TO SAY THE WORD

That Shall Decide the Question of Peace or War—And in the Meantime

Pushes with Extraordinary Vigor the Preparations for a Conflict—First Blood Shed in Manitoba—Riel Victorious—An Anti-Pierrot Alliance in Central America.

NEW YORK, March 28.—A London cablegram, dated the 27th, to The Morning Journal says:

War has not yet been declared on Russia, but an ultimatum has been sent to St. Petersburg, which everybody in England seems hoping that Russia will reject, so intent are the people on war. If a pacific answer does not come by Monday, the war dogs will be loosed. Earl Granville in the house of lords, to-day, said the government's attitude was firm.

In reply to Earl Granville's demand for immediate acceptance or refusal of the above proposition, which was to vacate the disputed territory until the boundary commission decides the frontier, M. DeGers, Russian foreign minister, has promised that a definite answer will be given not later than Tuesday. Opinion in London is divided as to whether this means that war will be declared by Tuesday, or whether it is simply another expedient of Russia's to gain time for further movements of troops toward Afghanistan.

The military and naval resources of England are being marshaled, and show great offensive strength for the purpose in view. All the available cruisers and iron clads have been ordered into commission. Every available fast steamer of the transatlantic steamship lines will be chartered for transport service. The American and Arizona are already said to be engaged. The first call on the reserves and the militia will bring 25,000 men to the colors, and volunteering from the militia to the regular regiments is encouraged. It is believed that 20,000 good men can be dispatched with all supplies in a fortnight to India. In proof of the energy of the preparations, it may be pointed out that a contract for 12,000 tons of coal to be delivered in the Baltic has been made; that 100,000 uniforms have been ordered; that 5,000,000 rifle cartridges are to be sent to India within ten days, and that ten torpedo-boats are in course of construction. Such furbishing of rifles, overhauling of vessels, and fitting up of army quarters has not been seen in England in seventy years. It is further believed that the naval reserves will be called out next week.

The arming of the nation is, however, beset by some difficulties. On no account is the military force in Ireland to be reduced. It is intended to send 25,000 of the English militia to Ireland, thus releasing 25,000 regular troops. This will be a delicate operation, for the presence of the militia in Ireland will probably be an incentive to a revolt. The English policy is, if there is any sing of open rebellion in Ireland, to hurry it to a head and crush it out bodily, making a smaller garrison necessary in the end. Canada is practically denuded of regular troops, and little aid is expected from there, as disturbance and dynamite, if not invasion, will, it is feared, keep Canada busy at home. From Australia a goodly contingent is expected. Finally it is believed that England and Scotland alone will furnish all the troops needed, even if it is necessary to put 250,000 men into the field by the beginning of next year, should the campaign last so long. All this will cost heavily. The first call will be for $40,000,000 next month.

From India come reports of still greater activity. Lord Dufferin has received the assurance of the maharajahs of their loyalty, and the formal offer of their forces. The native Indian troops will furnish some 70,000 men for a war, but their value as fighting factors must be counted at not more than half that number. The viceroy now has 60,000 men ready to march, but, of course, all are not on or near the Afghan frontier. He estimates that in case of war he will require immediate reinforcements equivalent to twenty-three regiments of infantry, three regiments of cavalry, two batteries of field artillery, and eighteen batteries of horse artillery.

To-night London is in a frenzy, and fairly longing for the war that is to glorify the English name and give some of the hoarded millions to the poor. Blood-letting of the people is looked on cynically as the best cure for the socialism which want has been fostering here.

The Russians are keeping their preparations very secret. Contracts have been made with ship-owners to carry troops across the Caspian sea. The Russian railroad across Turkestan, from Kizil-Arvat to Askabad, is almost finished. The section at Merv will be at once begun. Capt. Aplanoff, the governor of Merv, who is now at Nice, in an interview to-day said that a contest could not be well avoided, and that the Russians should at once seize and fortify Herat before the English could get there. He said if it came to war it would be long and bitter. He declined to say what he thought would be the result.

Other dispatches from London are as follows:

As part of the reinforcements required for India, it is in contemplation to send from Suakim the troops now forming the garrison there, together with the Grenadier guards now with Gen. Graham, provided arrangements are effected with the porte whereby Suakim may be garrisoned by 5,000 Turkish troops in lieu of the British force. This plan would not be carried out, however, until after Gen. Graham had inflicted a decisive defeat upon Osman Digma.

In the house of lords, Friday night, Earl Granville, replying to interpellations, reiterated the government's understanding that an agreement exists which binds Russia not to take any action on the Afghan frontier which can be construed as hostile. He said that the government had taken an unflinching attitude upon the Afghan question, and were following out a policy agreed upon by both political parties. Negotiations with Russia were in constant process, and meanwhile the ameer had promised to maintain perfect neutrality. While the government were hopeful of reaching a satisfactory understanding with Russia, it was, as yet, impossible to say how soon the negotiations would be terminated.

The order calling out the reserves effects every city and hamlet in Ireland and Scotland, as well as in England. It summons the artisan, the plowman, the laborer, breaks up families, and deprives many a poor fellow of the job he thought permanent. There has been no queen's message calling for reserves since the time of the Indian mutiny.

A prominent official at the Russian embassy offered to bet two to one, in any amount, that there would be no war between Russia and England. The talk at the Russian embassy is cheerful, when visitors are present, but the gayety seems forced, and the visitor leaves with an impression that the diplomats are trying to put a good face up on a serious matter.

The Standard says the government has informal indication that it is the Russian policy not to reply directly to Earl Granville's proposals, but to make counter proposals. Russia is desirous of settling the present troubles by compromise.

The Times learns that Russia has ordered 50,000 men to be concentrated around Baku. The governor of the Caucasus has been summoned to St. Petersburg to attend a council of war.

Dufferin at Rawul Pindi.

RAWUL PINDI, March 28.—Earl Dufferin, viceroy of India, has arrived here. He was accorded a most imposing reception by Abdurahman, ameer of Afghanistan. The ameer, in his address of welcome, hoped the councils which the earl had come so far to attend would be so guided as to insure honorable and lasting peace. In reply Lord Dufferin said that he was glad his first public act as viceroy of India was to cultivate friendly relations with the sovereigns of the states coterminous with the frontiers of India. "I trust," continued Lord Dufferin, "that the friendly reception which is about to be accorded me as her majesty's representative by the ameer will prove to our neighbors our first intention and our anxious desire to respect their rights."

The reception was very enthusiastic by the soldiers.

The authorities of Rawul Pindi presented Lord Dufferin with an address, declaring loyalty to her British majesty the empress of India, and expressing appreciation of the honor done Rawul Pindi in selecting it as the meeting place of the council. The address of the Rawul Pindi authorities concluded with the following statement: "This recognition of our dignity will confirm that confidence in us which has been so long established and which is daily receiving expression from the rulers of India."

FIRST BLOODSHED IN MANITOBA.

Riel's Rebels Attack the Police and a Number Are Killed and Wounded.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 28.—The government has received word that Riel has resigned the command of the insurrection in the northwest, and has put up one of his followers as a figurehead to save his own neck. The government is becoming more alarmed, and active preparations are maturing to throw a large force in the field immediately if required. Col. Irvine was within ten miles of Carleton Thursday night with his 100 mounted police. Important news is expected.

In the house of commons Friday night the following telegram from Lieut. Col. Irvine to Sir John Macdonald, dated Fort Carleton, via Winnipeg, March 27, was read by the premier: "The party under my command has just arrived. When near Fort Carleton I found that Maj. Crozier, with a party of 100 had gone to Duck Lake to secure a large quantity of supplies there stored. They were met by some hundred rebels who held an advantageous position at Beardy's reserve and endeavored to surround Maj. Crozier's force of police and civilians. The rebels fired first. When the firing became general Maj. Crozier, owing to the disadvantage at which he was taken, retreated in good order, arriving at the fort at the same time as my part. The civilians of Prince Albert and two policemen were killed, and four civilians and seven constables were wounded. The number of rebels killed is not known. The police and civilians acted with the greatest bravery under a heavy fire. Following is a list of the killed: Constable Gibson, of the mounted police; Constable Arnold, of the mounted police; Capt. John Morton, W. Napier, James Baloly, William Sottlot, Charles Hewlit, Robert Middleton, James Anderson, D. McKenzie, D. McPhail, Alexander Fisher. The last named are of the volunteer company raised by Prince Albert. The wounded are: Of the mounted police, Inspector Howe, Corporal Gilchrist, Constable Garrett, Constable S. F. Gordon, Constable Smith, Constable Wood, Constable Miller. Of the volunteer corps, Capt. Moore, A. McNabb, W. R. Markly, Alexander Stewart. The reading of the dispatch caused intense excitement.

TORONTO, Ont., March 28.—Orders were received here at midnight Friday by the Queen's Own Tenth Royal Grenadiers and the field battery to parade in the morning and proceed to the northwest. Men were sent out Friday night to rouse the men out of their beds. The greatest excitement prevails. A and B batteries have just received orders to accompany the others. One thousand stand of arms were shipped from here to Winnipeg Friday.

THE CENTRAL AMERICAN TROUBLE.

An Alliance Against the Would-Be Dictator—Jouett's Views Criticised.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 28.—It has been learned that on the 25th inst. a treaty was formally signed at San Salvador between the governments of Salvador, Costa Rica and Nicaragua, in which they agree to stand together. Upon the announcement of President Barrios, an alliance between these governments was agreed upon, but the details for mutual defense were not ratified until the signing of the treaty. In this treaty Costa Rica agrees to furnish 1,000 troops and $100,000 in money. The soldiers are now en route to the scene of hostilities. Nicaragua provides 4,000 men and Salvador all the men she can muster. The president of Salvador will direct the fight against Barrios.

Jouett's Idea Ridiculed.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Mr. A. M. Soteldo, Venezuelan minister to the United States, was questioned by a reporter Friday about the Central American troubles. He said that the people of the five republics were willing to unite under one executive head, but they desired to have such confederation take place peacably and not by force of arms. They do not wish their ruler forced upon them. He did not think, however, that Barrios possesses the qualities of a successful military conqueror. Mr. Soteldo ridiculed Rear Admiral Jouett's idea that France is supporting Barrios, and that the workmen on the Panama canal are likely, when a suitable time comes, to suddenly develop into French soldiers. On the contrary, he says, these workmen are such a negroid crew that it would require the services of all the Europeans on the isthmus to keep them in order, to say nothing of their being formed into an effective army.

The Chicago opera festival bids fair to be a success financially. Up to Friday the sales of seats amounted to $50,000.

An Irishman with Osman Digma.

CAIRO, March 28.—The Egyptian government has been informed that an Irish-American, name unknown, who left Chicago in January and sailed from New York about that time, proceeded to Ceylon, had an interview with Arabi Pasha, obtained credentials from him to Osman Digma, and has now joined the latter, to aid his campaign against the British.

Gen. Grant's Condition Not So Favorable.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Gen. Grant's condition was not quite so favorable Friday. He passed a very restless night, and in the morning appeared weaker and more depressed than for several days past. He was driven through the park, however, and in the evening Dr. Douglas said he was looking pretty well.

Very truly, AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

GRANT'S TESTIMONY.

He Denies That the Firm Took Government Contracts with His Knowledge or Consent—Ward's Prevarications—How He Managed Matters.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The testimony in the trial of James D. Fish, president of the Marine bank, was unusually interesting Friday, Mr. Fish took the stand and was examined as to the relations between the bank and the firm of Grant & Ward. He said that he first met Ferdinand Ward in 1876. He was introduced by Ward's father-in-law, Mr. Green, vice president of the bank. Ward told Fish he was a young man of limited acquaintance and small capital, but ambitious to succeed in business and he solicited Fish's advice. At the same time Ward told Fish that he had opportunities, through acquaintances, to speculate profitably in certificates of membership in the produce exchange, buying them for $200 and selling them at from $230 to $250 each. Fish lent Ward money from time to time to carry on those speculations and afterward Ward got Fish to go into various other schemes.

Ward afterward got acquainted with U. S. Grant, Jr., and introduced Fish to him. The firm of Grant & Ward was formed in 1880. Grant, Ward and Fish each supposably contributed $100,000 to the capital. After this Ward wrote often to Fish. The letters were read in evidence. In them Ward assures Fish that he has secured government contracts, and expects to get larger ones. The letters almost invariably suggest that Fish send certain amounts to aid in working up these investments. Ward also sent Fish each month a statement of profits and a check for Fish's share, ranging from a few hundred up to $41,000. Many of the letters are personal, and speak of Ward's success, which he attributes to Fish's giving him a start. He calls Fish his second father.

On March 3, 1882, Ward wrote: "The general contract business progresses well, but we must keep it mum, or the papers will give us fits." Referring to a large grain contract he has taken he writes: "We may not be in favor long, so I take them orders when I can get them. There is to be a large order in April, which I may try for if you say so. Now, a word as to the general. If some of these fellows down there (in Washington—who opposed the bill for retirement) should get wind of our having these contracts, they will use it as a tool to defeat the bill, so I am very careful, and I have cautioned Smith against saying anything. As long as we keep quiet and do this business in outside names and in a quiet way the general will stick by us."

After recess, the deposition recently made by Gen. Grant was put in evidence. In answer to questions put by counsel for Mr. Fish, Gen. Grant, according to the deposition, said: "I am informed that I was a partner in the firm of Grant & Ward at the time the failure took place. I never knew that I was anything else than a special partner. I have a dim recollection of receiving a letter from Mr. Fish about July, 1882, and of answering that I had a good deal to do that day; that it was doubtful when I could go and see him, but that I believed the matters his firm was engaged in were all right. The letter of which photographs were published I do not believe was the letter I answered. I don't suppose I ever saw the one that was published. I suppose Mr. Ward took very good pains that I should not have it. I have searched for the letter I did receive, but am unable to find it. I have not been in the habit of preserving private letters."

The general was shown another of the letters purporting to be written by him. He said the body of the letter was obviously not written by him. He did not remember the letter at all, and could not identify the signature as his, though he was not able to say it was a forgery. He frequently signed letters, when very busy, for Mr. Work and Mr. Ward and others connected with his companies, without reading them. He might have signed this, but without knowing its contents. The direct examination extended only to the identification of these letters.

The general then made a brief statement to the effect that at the time he went into the firm he had a very small income, but had some money that his son had managed and added to for him while he was abroad, and at his son's suggestion he went into the firm and was to have half his son's interest to live on. There was afterward an increase raised for him, and after that the firm generously concluded to let him in as a special partner, as he understood.

On cross-examination, Gen. Grant positively denied that the letter from Fish, the reply to which has been photographed, contained any reference to government contracts. He had told Ward when government contracts were mentioned that there must never be any engaged in. He had been president of the United States and did not think it suitable for him to have his name connected with government contracts. He knew there was no large profit in them except by dishonest measures. He never knew of but one government contract by the firm, and Ward told him that it consisted simply in buying 350,000 bushels of oats on the Chicago market. He saw nothing wrong in it. Afterward he heard rumors that the firm had government contracts, and questioned Ward about it, but Ward denied it, and said he would do nothing to injure the general. Afterward Ward, when pushed, explained that the firm simply lent money to contractors.

Gen. Grant further testified that he did not draw out his alleged enormous profits, but let them lie, except a small amount, and his $2,000 or $3,000 per month. He lost everything he had in the world by the failure. The night before the failure Ward told him they had over $2,000,000 in securities, and asked him to get $150,000 from Mr. Vanderbilt, which he did, borrowing it personally. Ward told him the firm was in danger because of the critical condition of the Marine bank, which held $750,000 of the firm's money. Mr. Fish never warned him of overdrafts and he did not know that Fish was raising money for the firm on discounts until after the failure.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and a single application of Cuticura, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of Cuticura Resolvent, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

WILL McDONALD, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cure) externally.

CHAS. HOUGHTON, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the Cuticura Remedies, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

F. H. DRAKE, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered untold tortures from Eczema, which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. After a most careful doctoring and a consultation of physicians failed to relieve him, he used the Cuticura remedies, and was cured, and has remained so to date.

MR. JOHN THIEL, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of Cuticura and four boxes of Resolvent have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

A SURPRISING CHANGE.

With its broad streets and majestic avenues adorned with stately buildings, Detroit is one of the most magnificent cities on this continent. Its new system of electric lighting throws into obscurity all the old methods, and leaves ordinary street lamps where dingy tallow dips used to be. The new lights are on light lattice work towers, 125 to 150 feet high, shedding a radiance which is like intensified moonlight. The effect of this when the city is covered with its white robe of snow, is strangely beautiful.

A gentleman recently spent a day or two in Detroit, pushing his researches to some extent in the direction of finding out as to the new method of curing rheumatism by means of Athlophoros, the remedy which in the last year or two has attained such favor as a victor over this old enemy of the human race. Calling on Mr. R. B. Watson, the well-known superintendent of the American District Telegraph Company, he found that gentleman cheerfully ready to say all the pleasant things he could about Athlophoros.

"My wife," said Mr. Watson, "was suffering terribly from rheumatism; her pains were both in joints and muscles. So excruciating were her agonies when she moved, that sometimes on assuming one position in the morning she would remain in that position all day rather than endure the torment of being moved. I procured a bottle of Athlophoros, and the effect on my wife was as surprising as it was gratifying. We had no idea that any medicine could so speedily remove such an obstinate disease. She was soon cured, and the cure was complete. Since that she has had no return of the disorder. We speak freely among our friends of the good work of Athlophoros, and have no hesitation in saying how highly we esteem it."

Visiting nearly all the leading drug stores in the city, it was found that all who had kept Athlophoros had received from their customers marked commendation of its efficacy. One lady had taken six bottles of it with the result of a complete cure. At Frizelle's, on Michigan Avenue, one of the clerks had taken it with excellent effect. This young man, Mr. Cohen, had suffered greatly with rheumatism. Though surrounded by medicines of every description, they did not reach his case. Mr. Cohen tried Athlophoros, and found that it did for him what nothing else had been able to do.

From Detroit to Chicago is but a day's ride, and in the latter city Athlophoros has also accomplished some wonderful results.

In Chicago, at 905 West Twelfth street, lives, Mr. William W. Summers, of the well-known firm of Summers, Morrison & Co., commission merchants, 174 South Water street. Mr. and Mrs. Summers gave substantially the following facts:

"When Robbie was taken sick some weeks ago we thought at first that it was only an ordinary cold, but it proved to be something much more severe. The pains were evidently those of rheumatism. We wrapped the boy in cotton and gave him a number of the remedies such as are generally given. His agony was dreadful. We had to hold him in the bed, his agony was so great. We had two physicians, who did not succeed in making him any better. The poor child's torture was so intense that he asked for a pistol, so that he might put himself out of the way and thus end his suffering. When he was at his worst we thought of Katie Gill, who was well known to us, and the medicine that had cured her. We sent to Mr. Gill's to know the name of the medicine and where to get it. They happened to have some left in a bottle—Athlophoros the name is—and they kindly sent it to us. It is surely a very strange and powerful medicine, for it stopped the boy's pain very soon and very effectually. He took but a little of it, for there was only enough for about three doses in the bottle Mr. Gill sent us. This was only a few weeks ago. The boy has had no return of rheumatism. You see him now as hearty and as happy as any other boy."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York.

Briefiets.

—Palm Sunday—to-morrow.

—The weather prophets predict stormy weather from March 27th to 30th.

—The charter amendments will be found in this issue of the Gazette

—Hattie Harvey, the lady champion, has the most elegant wardrobe of any lady skater. She gives change of programme each evening—at the rink Monday and Tuesday.

—G. A. Shurtleff, the popular proprietor of the restaurant on West Milwaukee street, had a telephone placed in his establishment to-day, and you can now talk with him over the wire—call "33."

—Mason & Morgan's Uncle Tom's Cabin combination is billed for the opera house Tuesday evening, March 31st—Admission 35—25 and 15 cents. Children under 12 years of age 15 cents to the lower part of the house.

There was a man in Norristown,
And he was very tall;
He went into the skating rink
And got a heavy fall.
And when he found himself laughed at,
With all his might and main,
He quickly sprang upon his feet
And fell right down again.

—J. K. Emmet tried to sing and act before a large audience at Madison, last night, and in one eight-line notice the Democrat did not pay him very much of a compliment. He was a big failure there as he was here.

—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad will sell excursion tickets to Chicago and return for the Chicago opera festival, including tickets of admission, at $4.95, round trip. Season opens April 5th, 1885, and closes April 18th, 1885. Tickets good for two days. Trains depart at 9:55 a. m.

—To-morrow will be Palm Sunday, the entrance upon Holy Week, which closes Lent. Services in Trinity church morning and evening, conducted by Rev. Dr. Conover, rector. Subject of morning sermon, "Christ's Tears for the Sinner." Evening service, "Christ Our King." The evening service begins now at 7:30.

—Geo. Nash, bicyclist, being unable to keep his engagement at the Riverside rink on account of illness, the management will give instead on Thursday evening April 2d, a grand hat and bonnet carnival. Each lady and gentleman is expected to wear the oldest and oddest style of bonnet and hat they can find.

—The Rev. L. N. Wheeler, formerly pastor of Court Street church, will occupy the pulpit of that church to-morrow morning and evening. In the evening he will lecture and will take for his subject—"Through the Celestial Empire." At the Sunday school service he will give a brief and entertaining talk to the children on China. Every member of the school should be present to hear him.

—Mrs. N. A. Brightman, whose residence is near Lake Koshkonong, was in the city yesterday. Mrs. Brightman did good missionary work in our city a year ago, and contemplates going to Chicago soon to enter upon missionary labor there. She is admirably calculated for the work, being a lady of culture, sympathetic, and carries with her the christian graces. She has the good wishes of her many friends.

—The three Arabian brothers appeared at the Riverside rink last evening with their "Dude" elephant on roller skates and drew out a large audience. The elephantine deception was very cleverly worked, and caused more genuine amusement than any of the previous "specialty" acts presented. The make up was about as near perfect as it is possible to make it, and the several tricks were capital "take offs" on the usual elephant performances in the circus ring. The Bower City band was present and enlivened the scene with several pieces of well-rendered music. The elephat will appear at the rink for the last time this evening.

—The examination of T. G. Mandt, of Stoughton, charged with obtaining property under false pretences was held yesterday in the municipal court. The complaint was made by Alex. Richardson, and alleged that the defendent by false and fradulent statements made concerning his financial affairs induced the complainant and others to dismiss an attachment suit commenced against him in the circuit court and release the property attached. Upon hearing the evidence Judge Patten held the defendant for trial in the municipal court, the defendant giving bail for his appearance. J. B Doe, Jr., conducted the prosecution and W. K. Luse, of Stoughton, the defense.

—Many voters of both political organization, have expressed the opinion that the school commissioners to be elected at large should be chosen regardless of political conventions, and have suggested the names of Dr. J. W. St John, and Stanley B. Smith, intimating that should the republican convention, which meets on Friday of next week, resolve not to nominate candidates, but recommend that the above gentlemen be placed on the city ticket, the democrats would likely do the same thing. The suggestion is an unobjectionable one so far as it relates to the management of the school, and will meet with favor by all who object to making a political machine of those having the public schools in charge. While the Gazette claims to be outspoken in favor of republican principles and republican candidates, we do not consider ourselves called upon to oppose such a measure.

—Seated in the front row of the parquette at one of the Oshkosh rinks one night last week, was noticed four little children of tender years, while gliding around on the smooth surface, was observed a lady in whom the little group seemed particularly interested; presently a baby's voice was heard, proceeding from the cloak room near by, and as the fond mother gracefully move in sight and hailing distance, one of the children shouted frantically, "Mother, mother, the baby's cryin'!" The mother halted and said in a persuasive voice, "Well, Johnnie, you go and take care of him and let mamma skate." Johnnie reluctantly obeyed and the fond mother was soon lost to sight. Verily, an Oshkosh rink is more attractive to the average mother than the foreign missionary society.

—It will be remembered by the republicans that last spring several would-be influential democrats feigned to cut loose from their party long enough to induce the republicans, under promise of hearty support, to commit themselves to a certain line of policy in that election, and before the day of that election, returned to their "first love." They succeeded then in misleading the party having a majority of the votes in this city, and now, some of the same movers in that same scheme are busy endeavoring to induce the republicans to commit another blunder whereby the democrats may possibly retain the positions which they so cunningly captured last year. The "people's convention" dodge is too thin, no matter if it comes from "a citizen" or "another citizen," as advanced by a correspondent in the morning paper. Mr. Blount, the present incumbent of of the treasury department of the city government, although a democrat, has given entire satisfaction to all,—none perhaps could do better—many as well. Now, where stands the democrat who can say less of the republican incumbent of the clerk's office, Mr. O. E. Church. "Another citizen" is barking up the wrong tree if he expects to find republican game. The duties of the treasurer's office are far less than those of the clerk, and as the correspondent referred to is so anxious to throw party fealty over his shoulder and rob the republicans of that which belong to them by advocating the claims of a brave soldier who left his right arm on the battle-field—let him be a little more self-sacrificing and give the soldier that which he and his party now possess—the treasury portfolio. This would, indeed, be showing generosity on the party of not only the correspondent, but all other democrats who are willing to do anything to divide the republicans that they may step in at the last hour and capture the city hall. Tyo thin.

From the Other Side.

To the Editor.

JANESVILLE, Wis., March 28, 1885.

Will you allow me space in your paper to congratulate the liberal-minded, non-partisan democrat, whose communication appeared in this morning's Recorder, upon his good intentions? But he being a democrat, could have proven his generosity better and served Mr. Fenton just as well, if he had proposed Mr. Fenton for Mr. Blount's place and let Mr. Church retain his position as clerk, which office he has filled far better than any we ever had.

A NON-PARTISAN REPUBLICAN.

Notice.

The mills of the Janesville cotton manufacturing company will resume work in carding and spinning departments, Monday, March 30th, 1885. Weaving will commence Wednesday, April 1st, 1885. Operatives desiring their former positions are requested to report promptly to their overseers.

Never in the history of amusement enterprises has any institution gained throughout the country so quick and great a popularity as this great panorama. This institution has been visited during the last year by nearly three-quarters of a million people, and is doing to-day the largest business of any Panorama existing throughout the world.

It is the first and only Panorama representing an episode of our late Civil war. The spectator steps at once from Wabash avenue, where the building is located, upon America's greatest battlefield. He is placed in the center of the Union troops in action, and views in the most vivid manner possible the Battle of Gettysburg, as it really took place July 3, 1863.

Do not fail to see it while in Chicago. Take the cable car to Gettysburg Panorama place, on Wabash avenue.

Card to Housekeeper.

People ask us how we can afford to give away a brass hammered placque clock to purchasers of our Peerless Baking Powder. In reply we say we cannot afford it. For the present we lose money but as long as consumers will be gulled into buying Alum Powder, because it is cheap, and they get a worthless chromo, or cheap tea set thrown in, we are compelled to adopt some novel way of calling attention to the merits of our Peerless Baking Powder which is absolutely pure cream tartar and soda. Any physician will tell you the astringent qualities of alum will destroy the lining of the stomach. We do not intend to give away these art clocks very long, and at the same time we wish it understood, that this gift of an art clock is no lottery. Every person gets value for value received in buying the powder, and in addition to value for their confidence in our goods, one out of every 48 purchasers is presented with the clock, which will be still more artistic if suspended from the wall by a brass chain. Our Peerless Baking Powder was once the leading powder in Janesville, and if you desire health in the food instead of disease, it will be a gain.

Yours Respectfully,
BELL, CONRAD & CO.

OBITUARY.

ELIZABETH ANN HARGROVE.

Was born in Kent County, Maryland, October 20th, 1813. While yet a young girl her parents removed from Maryland to Kentucky, and from there in a few years to Indiana, where Elizabeth was united in marriage with Mr. Isaac Miles, on the 22d of October, 1835. Mr. and Mrs. Miles came to Wisconsin in April, 1851, and settled in the town of Fulton, in Rock county, making for themselves and their family a very pleasant home which they occupied until something more than a year ago, when, owing to Mrs. Miles' failing health, they broke up house keeping and removed to the residence of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hubbell, in the town of Janesville, from whence, on the 23d day of March, 1885, in the 72d year of her age, she departed for her heavenly home. Mrs. Miles was an excellent woman. As wife, mother, friend and neighbor, she ever sought to discharge the duties devolving upon her, with the utmost fidelity. She was truly a Christian woman, and her faith in a life of immortal blessedness supported and cheered her to the last. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Lawrence, an old time friend of the family, on Wednesday, March 25th, in the presence of a large number of relatives, friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Prichard and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Church, with Miss Clara Church as accompanyist, rendered a very acceptable song service for the occasion. The remains were borne to the cemetery in Edgerton, with J. S. Hopkins, Henry Whitaker, S. Schoonover, Harvey Storey, C. E. Langworthy, and H. H. Brace, as bearers.

CRAZE FOR ART WORKS.

[New York Mail and Express.]

"Everything must have art about it to take," said a dealer on Broadway to a reporter. "I thought the line would be drawn when utility and quality were found incompatible with the extreme aesthetic taste for art, but if bedspreads, jute velour coverings, tidies and splashes haven't some pretty design of flowers, embroidery, or rococo embossing upon them, my customers heave a sigh and say: "Isn't it a pity such good material should be wasted for lack of artistic design in their finish.'"

"What do you do in such a case?"

"I sit down immediately and write to the factory that if they do not get up artistic designs and weave them in with their manufacture of linens I will not buy of them. Look at this array of spreads and colored towels and white mummy linen on the counter. The lunch and breakfast cloths are colored, yet not dark. They are blue and white, pink and blue, chocolate, blue and gold damask, with napkins to correspond. Pretty white ones of mummy or crape linen have beautiful designs in the center and fancy colored borders. The finish is generally a knotty fringe. Another unique white cloth has a crimson border and moresque design half a yard from the edge, which shows on top of the table when spread. The most beautiful designs are roses, leaves, or lilies."

"What is the popular fabric and style in tablecloths?"

"Satin-damask tablecloths. The designs are of many kinds to please different tastes, some with bunches of grapes and leaves, while the borders are of acrons and oak-leaves. Some have buttercups, and pansies forming a battlement in the center, with mimosa and ferns interlaced for a bordering. These are expensive, and five yards will cost from $75 to $100. The most fantastic designs are put on table-cloths. The more odd and novel the higher the appreciation of them. Mummy linen or huckaback is generally used for towels. Soft, rough Turkish towels are popular. The white linen towels have colored borders with figure or flower designs. On one is Bacchus and his devotees on a jamboree. Another design represents a pastoral scene and sheep browsing. Splashes of tidies have rows of hemstitching both crosswise and long. Some have exquisite borders of flowers of delicate line.

"A piano-cover of rich navy blue velours, having a bright flaming blue fleur de lis upon it, outlined by old-gold threads, is stylish and artistic. In bedsteads the immaculate white Marseilles are favorites. They have raised designs on them, generally arabesque in character. Pillows, bolsters, and shams are richly embroidered to go with them. Regular artists are employed to get up these designs, and prizes are offered frequently to encourage amateurs to venture and see what new designs they can study out. It is a curious thing how the art craze invades every branch of business.

"Of course I like it; because, as the designs are constantly changing and prettier ones made, new cloths are bought merely for the style of the design."

Why Women Are Not Drummers.

[New York Paper.]

Could or would a woman drummer, you think, adopt the methods of the typical drummer now on the road? Let us see his programme. He arrives at the town. Puts up at the best hotel and kindly consents to drink with the landlord and tell him how glad he was to leave Smith's hash-house at the next town in order to get to his hotel. Makes arrangements with him to play a little draw poker after the merchants have been visited. He goes to see a merchant. Asks him to come around and see his samples on exhibition at the hotel. Merchant refuses. He asks the merchant to drink. They do. They smoke cigars. The drummer swears he can discount the figures of the other drummer the merchant has been buying from. A dispute arises, and several hours are consumed in drinking, talking and smoking. The result is, merchant buys a bill to get the discount promised. Would a woman do that? Not much, I think. Now, it is plain why women are not drummers.
